

ExPrT Recycling Program

Earn a $100.00 ExPrT gift certificate toward the purchase of a new portable display when you send us your old portable display to recycle. Plus, we will include free ground shipping for your new portable display.

We will recycle your old portable display regardless of manufacturer.

It's easy being green!

ExPrT's commitment to Earth friendly exhibit design includes working to ensure that display equipment is properly disposed of at the end of its useful life. ExPrT's free recycling program for portable displays makes it easy for you to play a role in helping to protect the environment.

1

Opt in. Fill out ExPrT's Recycling form and send it along with your old portable display. Fax a copy of the form to 262-252-8669 with expected package delivery date.

ExPrT will send you a $100.00 Gift Certificate within 2 weeks of receiving your old display. The ExPrT Gift Certificate is good for $100.00 off of any portable display. Certificate is valid only at ExPrT – Exhibits, Graphics & Signs, and is only valid on our current portable product lines. Certificate is valid for 90 days.

2

Package. Package your old display in a box or carton appropriate for ground transportation. Must be packed to ensure product will not shift or break. Securely seal each box. Weight limit per package is less than 70 lbs.

Frequently Asked Questions

- What products are eligible for recycling?

ExPrT will accept for recycling portable displays and banner stands from any manufacturer, except products contaminated or suspected of being contaminated with chemicals, biological agents or other substances that are not integral to the original new equipment or otherwise associated with normal office or household environments. ExPrT will not accept hazardous waste. ExPrT will not accept batteries. Broken displays will be accepted.

Examples: Pop up aluminum framework, Truss Displays, Fabric tension displays, Aluminum hardware, Panel Displays, Banner Stand hardware.

- What type of materials can be recycled?
- Most portable displays are made with aluminum, steel, plastic, cardboard and fabric. ExPrT will work to recycle these materials in a responsible way including salvaging usable parts, and disassembling parts in order to recycle the display components appropriately.
- How much can I recycle for free?
- You may send ExPrT more than one portable display to recycle. However, ExPrT will limit the incentive to one $100.00 Gift Certificate per client. Also, ExPrT will limit the incentive of free ground shipping for the purchase of one portable display.
- Does the Gift Certificate expire?
- The ExPrT Gift Certificate must be used within 90 days of the date on the certificate. The $100.00 Gift Certificate is non-transferable. No change will be given and the certificates are not redeemable for cash. Certificate is not valid unless signed by user. Certificates will not be replaced if lost. Applicable sales taxes are the responsibility of the customer. Certificates are valid at regular prices and can not be used with other offers and may only be used at ExPrT – Exhibits, Graphics & Signs.
- I live in Hawaii or Alaska; can I participate in free recycling program?
- The free recycling program only covers within the 48 contiguous United States or District of Columbia. Alaska and Hawaii are not eligible.
- Do I have to clean the display before I send it to ExPrT?
- ExPrT will not accept any materials that arrive in a hazardous condition. Make sure to take off any signage that you would like to use on future displays. ExPrT will not remove or store graphics that are attached to displays sent to us for the recycling program .
